AXIS SHIPS SUNK IN ATTACK OFF BOOT OF ITALY TUESDAY NIGHT

THIRD ALLIED NAVAL ASSAULT ON ISLAND OF PANTELLERIA

By ROGER GREENE
Associated Press War Editor.

Allied warships boldly striking near Italy's own shores were officially credited today with sinking three vessels and driving a destroyer ashore in an attack on an axis convoy off Capo Spartivento, and Rome announced a third allied naval assault in four days on the "Italian Gibraltar" at Pantelleria.

Both Rome and Berlin plucked nervously at the specter of an allied invasion of Europe, with axis broadcasts ranging from Nazi defiance to fascist appeals for courage.

"Our fate will be terrible should we lose this war," said a Rome military spokesman, apparently seeking to frighten the Italians into a last-ditch stand.

"Nobody will be spared."

Another Italian commentator declared that "not much quarter" would be given British and American invasion forces, and added: "It would be a matter of butchery and not of butchering."

Meanwhile, dispatches from La Linea, Spain, reported a huge movement of allied shipping from Gibraltar, the great British stronghold virtually deserted.

Big Convoy Leaves Gibraltar.

Two convoys totalling 137 ships—troop transports, freighters, merchantmen, tankers and a hospital ship—steamed eastward into the Mediterranean at dawn yesterday en route to North African ports, it was reported.

Previously, an allied armada of three battleships, three aircraft carriers, several cruisers and destroyers was said to have left "the rock" for destinations unknown.

Allied headquarters gave no inkling of explanation for these reports, but declared that a small force of allied destroyers attacked an axis convoy off Capo Spartivento, just off the southern tip of Sicily, and sank two enemy merchant ships and drove an enemy destroyer ashore in flames.

"Our forces suffered no casualties or damage," it was announced.

Capo Spartivento lies off the toe of the Italian boot.

May Invade Pantelleria.

The London News Chronicle quoted French reports from Madrid as saying an allied force of "Pantelleria" could be expected momentarily and that the shore-bound Italian fleet was "prepared to steam into battle at an hour's notice."

The Italian communiqué gave no details on the new bombardment of Pantelleria, and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters said only that allied bombers attacked the island yesterday.

DETROIT, June 3.—(AP)—The will of Edsel Bryant Ford was filed for probate today and because it bequeathed the greater part of his Ford Motor company stock to the Ford Foundation, attorneys estimated estate inheritance and transfer taxes might not amount to much more than $12,000,000. Earlier reports, based solely upon conjecture, had placed the possible tax at as much as $200,000,000.

Attorneys said the estate (total probably would amount to $200,000,000).

Edsel Ford, only son of Henry Ford and late president of the Ford Motor Co. died last week at the age of 46.

The Ford Foundation, a non-profit corporation, was organized in 1936 for educational and other purposes. Gifts to organizations of its type are not taxable.

That portion of the Ford stock not bequeathed to the foundation is left in equal shares to Mrs. Eleanor Clay Ford, the widow, and each of the four children—Henry Ford II, Benson Ford, Walter E. Ford II and William Clay Ford. The widow is made executrix.

The Ford Motor Co. is capitalized at $100,000,000—20,000,000 shares at $5 a share, of which but 8,452,900 shares were outstanding as of September 1, 1942. Ninety-five per cent of the company stock, known as "class A," is non-voting; five per cent, known as "class B," is voting.

Latest available data indicate Henry Ford held 55 per cent of the stock; Edsel Ford 41.2 per cent and Mrs. Henry Ford 3.2 per cent. Each held "class B" stock.

ALLIED DESTROYERS ATTACKED CONVOY OF AXIS SHIPS TUESDAY

TWO MERCHANT VESSELS, TORPEDO BOAT AND DESTROYER DESTROYED

By DANIEL DeLUCE
Associated Press War Editor.

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS in North Africa, June 3.—(AP)—Allied destroyers sank two axis merchant vessels and drove an enemy destroyer ashore burning Tuesday night in an attack on a convoy off Capo Spartivento, Italy, it was announced today.

Capo Spartivento is at the toe of Italy.

The daring allied naval attack struck at the heart of Italy's sea communications in defiance of the Italian fleet.

The Italians were dependent on the Strait of Messina between Sicily and the toe of the Italian mainland to sail cargo ships between the west and east coasts. Capo Spartivento stands at the southern approach to the Strait of Messina.

In the air war, American planes raided Pantelleria and the southwest coast of Sardinia yesterday without loss to a single plane.

The naval blow off Capo Spartivento like the two naval bombardments of Pantelleria was accomplished without loss of a single ship.

"Our force suffered no casualties or damage," said a communiqué issued from the headquarters of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, allied commander in chief.

NAZI ARMY EXPERTS ADMIT POSSIBILITY INVASION EUROPE

WOULD MEAN, HOWEVER, GREAT LOSS TO INVADING ARMIES

By The Associated Press

German army experts, taking a long and careful look at the "chances of Anglo-American invasion of Europe," acknowledged today that such landings might be carried out successfully, but only at heavy cost to the invaders.

A Berlin broadcast discussion of two invasion articles in the German army organ Die Wehrmacht, recorded by the Associated Press, declared transport difficulties were the greatest allied invasion problem, but added:

"An Anglo-American expeditionary force might perhaps succeed in crossing the Mediterranean and landing somewhere in southern Europe, but it would not have the slightest chance in battle against the axis continental armies with their millions of well-trained and well-equipped troops."

The Nazi writer also admitted that invaders "might perhaps succeed in obtaining a foothold at some points on the Norwegian coast for some time" but declared that "for such an event preparations have been made for prompt and effective countermeasures."

"It cannot be denied of course," the broadcast said, that the Anglo-American occupation of Tunisia created a new situation in the Mediterranean.

"Anglo-American troops and war material concentrations in North Africa, in the hope that the Mediterranean can be prevented by the axis forces only to a certain extent."

The broadcast suggested that allied forces striking northward across the Mediterranean would face transport difficulties similar to those that made the axis occupation of Tunisia an extremely risky action "ignoring the obvious advantage that strong British fleet units and growing air strength would give the allied attackers."

Apparently striving to frighten the Italians into a last-ditch fight, the broadcast said:

AMERICAN-BRITISH ACTION MAY BLOCK DE GAULLE PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, JUNE 3.—(AP)—Joint American-British action to block any attempt of Gen. Charles De Gaulle to erect a virtual fighting French dictatorship in Algiers was considered possible in diplomatic quarters here today.

Comment was withheld officially pending the outcome of General De Gaulle's negotiations with Gen. Henri Giraud, French commander in North Africa, in the hope that an executive committee would finally be formed as a practical symbol of political unity.

But if General De Gaulle used the negotiations, or the committee, to set himself up as sole political chief, it was believed possible that the British would withdraw their financial support of him, a subsidiary said to exceed American lend-lease aid to General Giraud's forces.

Lend-lease Administrator Edward R. Stettinius, Jr., yesterday reported that medicine, food, clothing and other civilian supplies valued at $5,000,000 had been sent to French North Africa. For this, General Giraud, our only lend-lease cash customer, already has paid $25,000,000 as well as sending a substantial amount of raw materials to Britain and the United States.

Some observers in the government here privately voiced concern at the reported political confusion in North Africa, which they called a "regrettable mess" that might interfere with military preparations in the European theater.

CONNALLY AND POAGE GIVE MARLIN BOOST FOR NAVY HOSPITAL

WASHINGTON, JUNE 3.—(AP)—Senator Connally (D-Texas) put in a good word for his home town of Marlin when he conferred with Brig. Gen. Frank T. Hines, chairman of the Federal Board of Hospitalization, regarding the selection of a site for a proposed 1,000-bed naval hospital.

Since an announcement was made several weeks ago that such a hospital was proposed for a 190-mile front from Tuntung Lake to the Yangtze river opposite Ichang, which is the strategic point of the Yangtze river, the Japanese launched their self-advised climactic offensive to knock China out of the war several weeks ago.

The Chinese command said 4,000 Japanese troops were caught in a trap farther down the great river. Dispatches said Gen. Chiang's forces were sweeping on to spectacular victories in the "Chinese battle of Stalingrad" around Chingpi, where the Japanese had orders to resist to the last.

Chinese quarters apparently believed the battle might mark a turning point in the six bloody years of war with Japan.

Obliquely confirming the Chinese claim of victory, a Tokyo broadcast tersely declared that Japanese operations in Central China had been "successfully concluded and all Japanese forces have been brought back to their bases."

Tokyo said the 10th Chinese army and other forces had been annihilated in battles extending over a 190-mile front from Tuntung Lake to the Yangtze river stronghold at Ichang.

FRENCH COMMITTEE OF LIBERATION HAS BEEN ORGANIZED

GIRAUD AND DE GAULLE WILL ALTERNATE AS PRESIDING OFFICERS

ALGIERS, June 3.—(AP)—The French executive committee was formally brought into existence today and given the name of the National Committee of Liberation.

The committee's personnel is the same as previously agreed upon with Gen. Henri Giraud and Gen. Charles de Gaulle as joint heads alternating in presiding.

Following the meeting at which the organization was formalized as the governing body of liberated French territory, political quarters reported important changes would be made in the leadership of Algeria and French Morocco.

They said Gen. Georges Catroux, who was liaison officer between Generals Giraud and De Gaulle, would succeed resigned Marcel Peyrou as governor-general of Algeria and Gabriel Puaux, former high commissioner in Syria, would succeed Gen. Auguste Nogues as resident general of French Morocco.

The members of the National Committee of Liberation besides Generals Giraud and De Gaulle are:

Gen. Alphonse George and Jean Monnet as members selected by Giraud.

Rene Massigli and Andre Philip as members selected by De Gaulle.

Gen. Georges Catroux, accepted by both Giraud and De Gaulle.

Broke Deadlock.

The meeting at which the committee was brought formally into being broke a two-day deadlock during which no meetings were held and during which tension was evident in Algiers.

An agenda had been agreed upon in conversations among members yesterday, but by this morning, it was reported, several additional points which were opposed by Gen. Charles de Gaulle had been put on the program. This was believed to have caused the delay.

Before the meeting at which the committee status finally was fixed.

GERMANS REPORTED TO HAVE LOST MANY PLANES IN ATTACKS

SOVIETS SHOOT DOWN 123 NAZI AIRCRAFT FROM FORCE OF 500

By WILLIAM MCGAFFIN.

MOSCOW, June 3.—(AP)—A force of about 500 German planes attacked the Russian base at Kursk yesterday afternoon and at least 123 were shot down, the Russians announced today, signaling a new and growing phase of the bitter aerial battle on the Eastern front.

The Nazi air fleet represented the largest single mass the Germans have concentrated in any sector for months and their reported losses marked one of the heaviest single days in the war.

A Moscow broadcast said 98 of the raiders were brought down by Soviet pilots and that anti-aircraft guns shot down 30 more, after some planes got through to the city "and haphazardly dropped bombs which inflicted material damage and casualties."

The Russians said they lost 30 planes and declared the tally of Nazi victims was incomplete.

(The Soviet noon communiqué as recorded by the London Soviet radio monitor said 37 German planes were shot down northeast of Novorossisk yesterday. Land action was minor except on the Kalinin front, where 2,000 Germans were killed in a two-day battle.

ANGLO-AMERICAN EXPERIMENT CONSTANT BOMBING OF HITLER'S WAR INDUSTRIES WORKING WELL

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

The Anglo-American "experiment" of trying to bomb Hitler into near impotency is said to be working splendidly according to plan, and it shouldn't be long now before the wear-and-tear begins to show in his fighting machine.

The effect of such bombing, is of course, cumulative. That's to say, Hitler naturally has reserve supplies which are considerably in advance of his immediate requirements. Thus even if all his war production were halted at one time, it wouldn't necessarily stop his fighting-machine forthwith.

One of the results of this bombing already evident is that the Nazis are having to increase the manufacture of fighter planes in order to defend their industrial centers from bombing.

A Foyal Air Force commentator in London yesterday said that greatly increased numbers of U. S. A. F. bombers are needed for operations from Britain. He paid high tribute to American daylight bombing and said it contributed

BELIEVED GERMANS AFTER CHURCHILL IN BIG AIRLINER

THIRTEEN PASSENGERS CREW OF FOUR AP-ARENTLY LOST

LISBON, June 3.—(AP)—A Radio Roma message from Madrid said today a Spanish fishing boat had rescued five Britons from the Britain-bound air liner shot down Tuesday over the Bay of Biscay.

The survivors were taken from a rubber Miferat, the message said. (They were not identified in this dispatch.)

LONDON, June 3.—(AP)—Belief prevailed in some quarters here today that the Germans were gunning for Prime Minister Churchill when they shot down a British-bound air liner bringing Leslie Howard and 12 other passengers from Lisbon Tuesday.

Reports said there was a greater concentration of Nazi planes over the Bay of Biscay—where the liner was last heard from—than at any one time in many months, and they were said to be pouncing on every aircraft they spotted.

German controlled radio stations had put out various stories about the Prime Minister's whereabouts during the past week.

On Sunday one axis report said he had been in Gibraltar for several hours. The next day a dispatch from La Linea, Spain, said he was reported "somewhere in Africa" after spending 24 hours at Gibraltar.

COMPROMISE BILL FOR TAX PAYMENTS BEFORE PRESIDENT

WOULD PUT MILLIONS PERSONS ON PAY-AS-YOU-GO BASIS

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON, June 3.—(AP)—American income taxpayers today awaited President Roosevelt's decision whether they shall pick themselves up by the financial bootstraps and become current on their bills with Uncle Sam.

Before the president approved by overwhelming votes in both houses of congress which will put 44,000,000 persons on a pay-as-you-go basis if Mr. Roosevelt signs it, as congressional leaders are reported to have received new assurances he will do. The measure was sent to the White House by a 62 to 19 senate vote yesterday.

If it becomes law, the average taxpayer will pay 25 per cent of the lesser of his 1942 or 1943 taxes—in addition to his current levies—as the boot-strap device to get himself on the pay-as-you-go basis.

This, and other major provisions will make collections current in this manner:

1. A full year's tax (the lesser of 1942 or 1943) will be abated for persons who owe $50 or less, with a notch provision giving a $50 abatement to all up to $66.67. Only 75 per cent of the lesser of

PREPARED, HOWEVER, TO ORDER LEWIS MEN BACK TO DIGGING COAL

DRASTIC ACTION INITIATED IF URGING FAILS GET RESULTS

By JOSEPH A. LOFTUS

WASHINGTON, June 3.—(AP)—President Roosevelt was represented by informed quarters today to be prepared to order John L. Lewis' striking coal miners to go back to work on Monday, with a program of more drastic action in reserve if his first demand goes unheeded.

The back-to-work order may come late today or tomorrow, believe trustworthy persons, whose identity may not be published.

The plan, as these informants understand it, contemplates full use of the Commander in Chief's wartime power and his authority under the Selective Training Act, literal enforcement of all laws governing aliens, of whom there are thousands among the mine workers, and the use of troops in force, finally if necessary.

A possibility of employing former mine workers now in the armed services also is under consideration, competent sources reported.

The President's advisers were described as confident the strike can be ended and that a show of military might would be effective if other methods failed.

Statistical data on the draft classifications and alien status of members of the United Mine Workers were said to be on hand at the White House.

The President was understood to have fully sustained the War Labor Board's position and effectively blocked any dithering between Lewis and other government officials.

It is the board's definite position that the coal strike must be handled like all other previous defiance of federal law, and that the government and no adjudication of the issues while there is an interruption of production.

Besides the possibility of a Presidential order for the miners to return and that a show of selective service and alien laws, there remained always, of course, the chance that Lewis might recede from his heretofore adamant stand against the War Labor Board and the compromise might be effected.

Mr. Roosevelt saw members of the AFL-CIO Labor War Board today but members said afterward that the meeting had no connection with the coal dispute.

The possibility of any action before late today, or perhaps tomorrow, appeared remote, however.

There was evidence that the White House and James F. Byrnes, new War Mobilization Director, were working behind the scenes to bring the coal strike to a conclusion.

Nevertheless, Presidential Secretary Stephen Early said that he assumed that the War Labor Board's order that negotiations between the operators and miners be halted until men are back in the coal pits still stands.

FOOD CONFERENCE ENDS SIXTEEN-DAY SESSION WEDNESDAY

PARTICIPANTS DEMAND WORLD FREED FROM WANT IN FUTURE

By OVID A. MARTIN

HOT SPRINGS, Va., June 3.—(AP)—The United Nations food conference wound up its 16 days of deliberations today by formally approving resolutions calling on the 44 participating countries to join in past-war planning for a world freed from want.

It recommended the creation of an international agricultural authority to secure collaboration on programs to increase the production, distribution and consumption of food.

The work of the conference was hailed by A. D. Krutikov, chairman of the Soviet Russian delegation, with the words that it "has laid a firm foundation for the future collaboration of nations in the field of food and agriculture" and "has brought nearer the victory over starvation."

CHINESE CONTINUE TO ADVANCE ALONG YANGTZE SECTOR

CHUNGKING, June 3.—(AP)—Chinese troops have driven to the right bank of the Yangtze opposite Ichang in an air-supported counter-offensive against the Japanese and have surrounded 4,000 of the invaders further down the great river, the high command announced tonight.

A Chinese army spokesman said Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's forces yesterday recaptured the town of Chanyang, 12 miles south of Ichang, and also occupied the port of Chihkiang, 35 miles downriver from the Japanese base.

The high command issued a special communiqué to keep abreast of developments in the counterattacks against the routed enemy shock troops.

It said Chinese driving northward from Hunan Province crossed the border into southern Hupeh and surrounded Kungang, another of the bases for the abortive Japanese push against defenses of the upper Yangtze. Kungang lies 70 miles southeast of Ichang.

Japanese troops are being driven back toward the south bank of the river on the whole upper Yangtze front, the spokesman added.

He said that the Japanese had

Aerial Activity In South Pacific Has Been Renewed

WASHINGTON, June 3.—(AP)—Renewed aerial activity in the South Pacific with American bombers pounding Japanese positions on Bougainville was reported by the navy today in a communiqué which told also of bombing raids on Kiska in the Aleutians and a continued wiping out of small enemy groups on Attu.

Large fires were started at Tinian harbor and Numa harbor by the bombers which struck the northeast coast of Bougainville. Two small enemy vessels off Tinian were bombed and one was beached.

The communiqué raised the known Japanese dead on Attu to 1,781, and said that on June 1st, on Attu Island, United States army troops combed the island and by noon had eliminated minor groups of Japanese troops encountered, while the same day formations of army Mitchell and Ventura medium bombers, Lightning and Warhawk fighters bombed and strafed Kiska. Hits were scored on the Japanese main camp area, runways and gun emplacements. A number of Canadians piloting Warhawks participated.

During the evening of May 31st, Liberators heavily bombed Japanese installations at Tinian harbor and Numa Numa harbor on the northeast coast of Bougainville Island. Numerous fires were started. In addition, two small Japanese vessels off Tinian were

ULTIMATE WRECKING JAPANESE PROGRAM IN PACIFIC SEEN

DOWNFALL STARTED YEAR AGO IN BATTLE OF MIDWAY ISLAND

WASHINGTON, June 3.—(AP)—The ultimate wrecking of Japan's ambitious scheme to smash American power in the Pacific and dictate peace in the White House is seen by authorities here in the history of 12 months of warfare following the decisive defeat in the battle of Midway Island, which was joined a year ago today.

Not since that battle has Tokyo been able or willing to launch a major new offensive, and the initiative has passed so thoroughly into American hands that no other enemy drive of similar proportions seems possible in this war.

The reconquest of Attu Island, which also dooms the enemy base on nearby Kiska, already strips the Japanese of the minor gains they made from the grand strategy that resulted in their defeat at Midway.

On Attu more than 1,500 of the foe have been killed, according to an actual count of bodies.

Japan's uncompleted airfield on Attu and all the useful terrain and anchorages are under American control and it is believed that installation of enemy equipment is going forward apace.

The first Japanese attack on the Aleutians came three hours before the beginning of the battle of Midway 2,000 miles to the south. Bombs fell on Dutch Harbor about 6 a. m. June 3, and American planes spotted the armada approaching Midway at 9 a. m.

ROUTINE MATTERS
DISCUSSED TUESDAY
BY COMMISSIONERS

ROADS, BONDS, IMPROVEMENTS AND REPORTS
WERE CONSIDERED

A variety of matters were discussed at the regular meeting of the commissioners court Tuesday morning.

Gene Tanner, who resides west of Purley, appearing relative to the reported closing of a road, approximately 11-14 miles in length, extending south from Highway 31. He said that adjacent property owners had fenced a portion of the road and were expected to fence the remainder. County Commissioner Fred M. Copeland and the other members of the commission advised Tanner they would inspect the site.

Courthouse Changes

The removal of the grill along the desks in the office of Halley Blake, assessor and collector of taxes, was authorized before the repainting and redecoration in that office.

A discussion of the proposed changing of the ladies rest room on the first floor of the courthouse from its present location to the offices now occupied by the delinquent tax attorney was held but action was deferred. The change would entail the expenditure of about $530.

The quarterly report of Miss Alma Armstrong, county treasurer, for the period beginning February 1, 1943, and ending April 30, 1943, was accepted and approved.

Call Road Bonds

Call for payment of maturing bonds aggregating $8,000 was authorized. They are $4,000 in Road District 4 (Frost), July 10, $2,000 in Road District 5 (Dawson), July 10, and $2,000 in Road District 15 (Winkler), due July 1.

Claims were allowed except as noted on the docket.

The motion by Commissioner Drew Gillen, seconded by Commissioner Copeland, was passed authorizing one or more 11-2 new trucks for use in Precinct 4.

The report of W. H. Phillips, negro county agent, was accepted.

A report on the recent national convention of county officials held in Omaha, Nebraska, by E. D. McCormick, county judge, featured the afternoon session of the commissioners court Tuesday afternoon.

Judge McCormick and E. Y. Cunningham, county auditor, were instructed to investigate the advisability of repairing or moving the site of the ladies rest room on the first floor of the courthouse, and make their recommendations back to the court.

The court and Constable T. J. Roe conferred relative to a questioned deputation for a deputy. Another deputation is to be made in the matter, it was indicated by the court following the conference.

Some complaints lodged relative to arrests and trials in justice court on highway charges were conveyed to Roe, it was stated.

ABILITY TO 'TAKE IT,' SAYS
PETER, IS CHRISTIAN VIRTUE*

Soft Spirits Revealed in Time of Testing, Like the Present—Real Persecutions and Martyrdom Now Being Undergone by Churches Abroad—The Great Support.

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS.

One of the war's ominous revelations is that some persons cannot "take it." They show up soft and selfish under rationing and other restrictions. They evade laws that interfere with their accustomed manner of life. Having neither the brains nor the nobility to accept their prescribed part in this greatest test that has ever been visited upon humanity, they put selfish convenience and comfort and profit first.

Canada and Great Britain have excelled their big ally, the United States, in brave acceptance of war's reality. They have got almost wholly away from the car-cass-coddling, sense-titillating mood which followed the earlier war.

Nevertheless, the great bulk of the people have accepted the principle of sacrifice as essential to the war. Some of the little nations are undergoing incredible hardships and persecutions. Even the immature laggards, whose squealing and hawking affront the ears of patriots, are learning the vital lesson that there are greater goals in life than mere prolongation of physical existence. Our brave men in service are teaching us how to endure and to die.

Mrs. Charlotte Perkins Stetson put this pertinent truth into verse.

"A man must live! We justify Low shift and trick and treason high. But is it so? Pray tell me why Life at such cost you have to buy?"

In what religion were you told 'A man must live'?

"There are times when a man must die. Imagine, for a battle cry From soldiers, with a sword to hold— From soldiers, with the flag unrolled— This coward's whine, this liar's lie."

Peter and the Persecuted

Our old friend Peter, the apostle who had come up the hard way to leadership, and who was more familiar with the inside of prison than of libraries, deals vigorously with this theme. It was no theoretical essay that the fisherman wrote. He was addressing far-scattered Christians who were undergoing persecution by Nero, that Roman emperor who had a curious likeness to Hitler, these victims of a madman's ambition and fear and hate (their counterparts abroad in Poland, Greece, Yugoslavia and other martyr lands today) were being tortured and killed in fiendish ways—thrown to the lions, covered with tar and set alight, as human torches, beheaded, crucified and burned at the stake.

In his letter, Peter frequently adverts to the plight of the brethren. He lovingly reminds them (I Peter 4:12-14, Weymouth Translation) of their lot. "Dear friends, do not be surprised at finding that that scorching flame of persecution is raging among you to put you to the test—as though some surprise who thing were accidentally happening to you. On the contrary, in the degree that you share in the sufferings of the Christ, rejoice, so that at the unveiling of His glory you may also rejoice with triumphant gladness. You are to be envied, if you are being reproached for bearing the name of Christ; for in that case the Spirit of glory—even the Spirit of God—is resting upon you."

The Great Motivation

Peter points the sufferers to Christ. Over and over again, he recalls his friends to the example of the Master. Jesus suffered even unto death; should the disciple expect less than his Lord? There is comfort for the endurer in the experience of the suffering Saviour. If we follow in His steps we must expect to share His ordeals. And persecution profits. We see the Church in Europe coming to new courage and power and unity under the onset of the oppressors.

The one great motive for heroic living—and, in a lesser call, heroism—is obedience to Christ. We may not shrink from the way He went, even though it leads through Gethsemane to Calvary's crest. To be sharers of His suffering, in His sublime spirit, is to find life at its best. We are bidden not to please ourselves, but to reflect Him.

And in that fellowship is comfort. "Casting all your care upon Him, for he careth for you," wrote Peter. That comfort and comfort means to make strong—was experienced by many of the early Christians who heard Peter's letters read in their remote assemblies. So they went to their fate with songs of peace and victory on their lips, and with heavenly smiles on their faces. Yes! fellowship with Christ makes heroes.

An Oriental Scene

I shall never forget the first time I saw an oriental threshing machine. I was riding through the Holy Land with Dr. Franklin Hoskins when we encountered a donkey, bearing on its back a heavy board platform, or sled, studded with pointed flints. I had no conception of its use, although it later became a familiar sight.

Dr. Hoskins explained that this was the ancient device used for threshing grain—the remote ancestor of our modern threshing machine. The farmer spreads his garnered grain on the level earthen threshing floor; and then hitches an animal to this primitive, sled-like device and drives it around and around, until the flinty points have separated the grain from the chaff. He then winnows it by tossing the pile in the air, for the wind to blow away the chaff, leaving the grain to be gathered into sacks.

The device bears its old Latin name of "tribulum," from which we derive our word tribulation. The moral is vivid. Tribulation is a winnowing of the good grain from the chaff. The tribulation undergoing tribulation may say, "God is winnowing me out on His threshing floor. He wants to find the good grain beneath the husks of life." All of us have seen this spiritual process in operation. It has revealed the hero and the saint that had been hidden in conventional life. Our boys will come home from the war made conscious of their own character, because they have been under the "tribulum."

From Under the "Tribulum."

Interblended with his counsel upon the present persecutions, the fisherman author gives counsel concerning Christian character and conduct. He sets up the fixed standards of daily behavior. For discipline is to be proved in daily walk, as well as in martyr heroism.

Peter bravely cautions the brethren not to grow morbid, or to indulge in a mood of self-pity, or to attribute all of their trouble to their saintliness. It is one thing to be criticized for our real faults and quite another to be persecuted for our faith. The smug and sanctimonious type of Christian, who is disliked for his insistent and unpleasant personality, comes in for plain words from honest Peter.

Back of all suffering of saints is the inscrutable will of God, who is steadily working His purposes out. Even this terrible war, born of the devil and of man's devilishness, we may dimly see, by the providence of the Almighty, who has been driving His "tribulum" over the harvest of life.

Young Fairfield Girl Was Buried Saturday Afternoon

FAIRFIELD, June 1.—(Sp.)—Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock for Janette Chappel, aged 12, at the First Baptist church in Fairfield, with the Rev. Mr. Parker, Rev. James Morgan and Rev. Frank McElroy officiating. Burial was in the Fairfield cemetery, with Burleson Funeral Home in charge.

Flower girls were members of the newly organized Girl Scouts, of which Janette was a member. Pallbearers were six firemen, Ben Bonner, Ramon Kirgan, Edwin Kirgan, Forest Wood, Clyde Glazener and Buddy Richardson.

She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Chappel, and two brothers, Joel Chappel, Jr., and Dudley Chappel, and numerous other relatives.

A large number of friends and relatives from distant points attended the funeral.

COMMITTEE NAMED TO SECURE FUNDS

Advance expense funds with which to attempt the location of a large Naval hospital in this city are being raised immediately by a committee consisting of S. J. Miles, chairman; Festus A. Pierce and W. E. McKinney, appointed at Chamber of Commerce directors call meeting Tuesday morning.

Beauford Jester, past commander Johnson-Wiggins Post, American Legion; H. P. Phillips, present commander, and Joe E. Butler, or Robert G. Dillard as alternate, will leave this week for Washington to make further plans and bids on this project.

Report on joint meeting of the Chamber of Commerce War Activities Committee and American Legion representatives on Monday afternoon was given by Fred Harvey, Jr., president, acting in behalf of Chairman Joe Butler who was out of town Monday.

Manager Dillard announced the Kerens Chamber of Commerce banquet to be held there Thursday night.

Cattle-Truck Wreck Interrupted Traffic

Four head of cattle were killed and traffic was interrupted for some time Wednesday on Highway 31 when a cattle truck crashed into the Chambers Creek bridge railing, causing considerable damage to the bridge, it was reported here.

The halted traffic caused a nine-pound boy to be born before a local hospital was reached, it was stated, but both mother and babe were reported doing well Thursday.

While the traffic was jammed at the bridge, the automobile containing the expectant mother returned to Powell where an ambulance was called to meet the car at the wreck site.

The damaged truck and trailer were brought to Corsicana.

No public assemblies, no public assemblies may be held without the permission of authorities.

Police said they had discovered two members of Giraud's bodyguard at 2 a. m. painting signs derogatory to De Gaulle on Algiers walls. One escaped, the other, taken into custody, was later released.

Giraud's forces continued to maintain a close guard over the Algiers broadcasting studio and other strategic points which might be seized if any coup were attempted. A tank was moved into the garden of Giraud's palace.

Details of the compromise reached between De Gaulle and Gen. Henri Giraud on the former's demand for a purge of officials who formerly were of pro-Vichy tendencies were revealed by well-informed persons who cannot be identified by name.

"Nobody will be spared," he said.

The broadcast, recorded by the Associated Press, went on to allege that the Allied air was prepared "cold-blooded mass murder of our unarmed civilian population."

The spokesman asserted that the Italian people "never before were so united around the regime or so confident that victory will be reached."

Another Rome commentator declared that "if the British and Americans were to try to assault the European fortress not much quarter would be given them. It would be a matter of butchery and be butchered."

IN NORTH AFRICA—P. F. C. Lynn Scruggs, Corsicana Route 1, recently arrived with the armed forces in North Africa. He has been in the service fifteen months.

Solomons campaign occupied the Japanese in costly defensive fighting. Allied forces in Australia drove into northeastern New Guinea.

The fighting in the Solomons and New Guinea was followed by the American offensive in the North Pacific and it is considered noteworthy that not once in more than three weeks of fighting there have the Japanese risked any of their warships and but few of their planes to support their beleaguered garrisons.

Midway, military and naval authorities agree, marked the turning point of the Pacific war. But they emphasize that most of the fighting remains to be done. American forces are still a long way from regular bombings of Japan itself.

Reach Agreement

LONDON, June 3.—(P)—A Reuters dispatch from Algiers said today it was officially announced that members of the French executive committee reached a full agreement at their morning session. The dispatch did not report details.

IN MEMORY OF

REV. T. B. UPCHURCH
"MY DADDY"

My Daddy has gone to Heaven,
Where all good Daddies go.
Altho' he is with Jesus,
Dear God we miss our Daddy so.

We do not envy him this pleasure
He is better off than we;
For he has a beautiful mansion
And there he will wait for me.

With God's loving hand to guide us
Through this world of sin,
We will meet you some day Dear Daddy
In that mansion over there.

We still have our Darling Mother
We love her very much that is true,
And she still has her children
But we can never take the place of you.

Some how we will stand together
And do the best we can
To live as you have taught us
Some day, we too, will understand.

And now your suffering is over
And you will have no more pain,
Dear Daddy how we miss you
But our loss is Heaven's gain.

—Written by his daughter, Mrs. Ora Tramel

If You Need A Sharpening Stone

We now have a wide variety of sharpening stones of all kinds from a small stone for pocket knives up to the large ones for sharpening all kinds of tools.

We have the medium price stone or the genuine Carborandum stone in all kinds and sizes.

Or if you want a grinding wheel, we have that, too. Also sickle grinders.

Nutrition in the Lunchbox

It takes a bit of doing to keep lunchbox meals in balance. And since this meal makes up a goodly portion of the daily fare for lunchbox diners, it behooves us to keep the nutritional standards high. We're offering a few tips for these portable meals which may be of help.

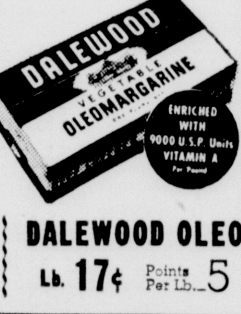

DOUBLE-DECKER SANDWICHES—If hearty sandwiches are an order, make double-decker ones with a combination of fillings such as jelly and cheese or peanut butter, meat and grated carrots, salad filling, or egg and relish or cucumber spread. Vary the bread, too, using part white and part dark.

SOMETHING CRISP—Send the vitamins and minerals along in the lunch in form of a whole carrot, a wedge of lettuce, a jar of cabbage cole slaw, some radishes, or a crunchy apple. Crisp foods add texture interest to sandwich meals, too.

TOMATOES—Take full advantage of the tomato season and include whole tomatoes in the lunchbox. It's better to send them whole than sliced in sandwiches. Or you might fill that thermos with fresh tomato soup or bouillon, or chilled fresh tomato juice. Tomatoes are rich in vitamin C.

FRUIT—Vary the fruit according to the season, and include dried fruit too. It will be appreciated.

PEANUTS—Tuck in a bag of salted peanuts for added nourishment and nibbling enjoyment. They are vitamin B-rich.

CORSICANA, TEX., JUNE 4, 1943

THE NURSING SITUATION

The shortage in the nursing field is serious. It has reached a point of actual danger. If an epidemic were to occur, many lives would be lost for lack of efficient nursing. Army and Navy need 3,000 trained nurses a month.

No woman need hesitate to enter the field because of the time it takes to become a trained nurse. A woman who has taken a home nursing course can handle ordinary illnesses. The mild case of flu need not, if someone in the neighborhood has such training, run into pneumonia or any of the serious effects of streptococcus infection, requiring hospital care and highly trained nursing. Quick attention to first symptoms often helps a patient to get well without further trouble.

Any woman also, who takes a Nurse's Aide course in a hospital, helps greatly. The Nurse's Aide attends to the routine tasks which consume so much time, but which any intelligent woman, with a little instruction, can perform. One trained nurse on a floor, with Nurse's Aides to assist, can do the work of two, releasing one to go to war.

In pioneering days every mother had to learn how to take care of minor ills. Then came a stage when women were careless about small illnesses, and fell back on hospitals or registered nurses for big ones. It's time to learn again. A knowledge of home nursing is an asset to any woman and in any home.

A CONTINENT RE-DEEMED

One of the striking points made by Winston Churchill in his speech of May 19 was that of one clear continent. Americans have been apt to think of the North African victory as merely the clearing out of a thin strip of land. Although it had great importance in making shipping through the Mediterranean possible, shortening the lines to the Middle and Far East, in their minds it remained a narrow shore.

Churchill reminded his audience that the British holding the island of Madagascar off the eastern coast, and British, French and Americans holding the area through to Dakar, the whole continent of Africa was now in the hands of the United Nations.

The Americas, North and South, barring some strong fifth columns in the Argentine and a few Jap strongholds, now beginning to weaken, in the Aleutians, are firmly held by the Allies. That makes three. Australia is the fourth.

Europe and Asia remain to be freed. But all the peoples under invaders are restless, miserable, plotting against their conquerors. When the liberating armies once get inside the outer defenses, they will find themselves helped by the populations in those countries.

The war is far from won. Many more good men must die, many more good ships be sunk, before freedom is securely won. But much has already been accomplished.

ITALIAN CRISIS

Reports from Italy are seldom trustworthy, but it is evident that little is left of the nation's resources and fighting power. Important changes are doubtless under way. British newspapers have suggested

Edgar A. Guest

The Poet of the People

GARDEN THOUGHT

I walk my little garden round,
The one spot left where peace is found,
And none through deadly fire
Must grope,
The last resource of faith and hope,
And think 'tis surely meant that
Better than mortal are to be.

Only a skill that is divine,
Could shape and tint the columbine
Or in the self-same garden bed
Grow roses yellow, white and red
And teach each root and branch
To choose
What yellow, white and red must use.

Within that little garden spot
Nothing is won by shell and shot.
The smallest bloom expression seems
Of art beyond man's highest dreams,
Of wisdom and of skill too great
For man to grasp or imitate.

The Great Creator fashions things
Like butterflies with golden wings
And birds for song, and flowers and fruit,
But man still fashions guns to shoot
And spends his thought, his strength, his skill
In making this to crush and kill.

that Hitler may soon "abandon Italy to her fate," letting her meet the threat of Allied invasion alone.

If this is true, it means the Nazis have so thoroughly looted Italian resources of materials and men that only an empty shell is left. Also that the Germans find it necessary to abandon their outer lines and close in for more effective defense against the Allies. It might be the first frank move in turning Germany, with the captive countries she aims to hold, into a great fortress to withstand Allied siege.

As for "abandoning Italy to meet an Allied invasion," there might be a show of fight if the Nazis pulled out. But the Italian people never wanted this war, and have hated it more and more as their sufferings increased, and they might soon be entirely out of the war or fighting alongside the Allies. Italian admiration for America and historic friendship with Britain would make such a move easy. It is a good time for Italian-Americans to make their influence felt.

PAYING UP

It has long been known that "honesty is the best policy," but until lately it never seemed to be assumed that people, left to their own devices, could be counted on to practice it. Either that has been a grievous mistake, or else the world, as regards honesty, is changing lately.

Just the other day it was announced that the city of Spokane, Wash., was allowing citizens to assess their own real estate, and was taking their word for the taxes, and that it worked so well that the citizens were voluntarily paying more than they used to pay under strict compulsion.

Now comes another surprise from the West Coast, telling an incredulous world that the San Diego Gas and Electric Company is letting citizens read their own meters and make out their own bills. This trustful procedure is based on a trial which showed that customers were 99 per cent honest. Maybe with this idea of mutual trust and honesty getting so much advertising, even the delinquent will start paying without compulsion. And soon people may all be so honest and cooperative that they will hardly recognize themselves.

When this war is over, will men be "forbade to wade through slaughter to a throne and shut the gates of mercy on mankind?"

You can't teach an old dog new tricks, but human beings are learning to eat out of glass jars instead of tin cans.

Robert J. Murphy Issued License as Methodist Preacher
At a special meeting of the committee on licensing for the Corsicana District of Methodism at the First Methodist church Saturday, a license to preach as a Methodist preacher was issued to Robert James Murphy, son of Captain Herschel Murphy and Mrs. Murphy, in charge of the local Salvation Army work.

Robert, better known as Bob, is a musician of note and has been active in Salvation Army work for some time. He has been attending the Methodist school at Tehuacana and he plans to complete his education at Southwestern University, Georgetown, before being admitted to full connection in the Methodist ministry.

Their attendants were Miss Gladys Johnson of Rice and J. E. Lawton. Mrs. Whiteside wore a printed white jersey dress with white accessories.
She was graduated this spring from Corsicana High School and will continue to make her home here at 912 South Fifteenth. Mr. Whiteside left Wednesday morning for Camp Wolters, to be inducted in the Army.

Camille Bartlett To Wed C. L. Jobe Here On June 13

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Bartlett, 1211 West Eleventh avenue, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Camille, to Charles L. Jobe, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jobe of Slaton, Tex.

The wedding will take place on June 13, at the rectory of the Church of the Immaculate Conception. The ceremony will be performed by the Very Rev. Msgr. V. Graffeo.

Miss Bartlett is a graduate of Corsicana High school. Mr. Jobe was graduated from Slaton High school and attended Texas Technological College.

The couple will make their home in Dallas.

Grow Plants for Erosion Control

The following information for publication has been released by C. O. Ferguson, soil conservation service:

Morris Crawford, member of the board of supervisors of the Navarro-Hill Soil Conservation District, has taken the lead in trial plantings of Kudzu. This is the plant that makes almost miraculous growth in southeastern United States. It is a proven plant for erosion control in gullies, as a hay crop and for pasture. The Highway Departments of several states use it as a standard control measure in roadside ditches and gullies.

This viney plant is a legume and therefore valuable as a soil builder. Hay yields range from one to three tons per acre. As a pasture plant under proper conditions it will carry one animal unit per acre during the growing season. One special use is for stopping severe gullies.

The plants are very scarce and difficult to secure so the Navarro-Hill Conservation District has distributed enough roots to several farmers for seed stock plots. If these plantings prove successful on our soils and climate, they will supply roots to larger areas. The following farmers in widespread communities of Navarro County are growing test plots: John Beck, Steve Vernon and T. S. Henderson, Kerens; W. R. Bonner, Eureka; W. C. Pearce, Richmond; J. C. West, W. T. McKee and L. S. Keen, Corsicana; J. M. Perry and L. C. Boswell, Barry, and Ernest Hoosier, Frost.

ANNOUNCE CHANGES OFFICER PERSONNEL CORSICANA FIELD

Two officers of the military detachment of Corsicana Field, Air Activities of Texas, Wednesday were transferred to other posts, it was revealed by Lieut. Louis R. Renfrow, public relations officer. Capt. R. H. Hunt, assistant supervisor, air inspector and engineering officer, has been transferred to the army air force flying training detachment at Sweetwater, a primary training base for women flying students. Capt. Hunt had been stationed here since May 3, 1942, and prior to that time had been at Tulsa, Okla., for three years. He was succeeded by First Lieut. Roy T. Hoke, Jr., who returned to Corsicana Field Tuesday after four months at El Reno Field, near Oklahoma City, Okla.

The other officer transferred is Second Lieut. Frank M. Jolley, assistant physical training director, to the army air forces college training detachment at the University of Missouri, Columbia, Mo., physical training division. Lieut. Jolley had been here since October, 1942. He is a graduate of the University of North Carolina.

Good Corn Crops Reported By Orm

G. W. Orm, district agent, Texas A. and M. College extension service, was here Wednesday and reported exceptionally good corn crops with a large acreage devoted to that food throughout his North Texas district. Navarro county is the lower county of Orm's district. The district agent also stated that good gardens were evident, and while excessive rains had been encountered in many sections, those conditions are not as bad as dry periods, and predicted good crops.

Blooming Grove Couple Wed Tuesday

Ed Ewing and Mrs. Clara Stringer, both residents of the Blooming Grove vicinity, were married in the commissioners court room at the courthouse Tuesday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by E. D. McCormick, county judge, with the commissioners court, and deputies and officials of various offices as witnesses.

ROBBERS CAPTURED NIGHTWATCHMEN AND TWO TOWNS LOOTED

After capturing the nightwatchmen in two towns in this area early Wednesday morning, three hi-jackers systematically looted business establishments and made a successful get-away and no trace had been found of them at noon Wednesday. One of the officers was beaten and locked in a car turtleback.

Hubbard, Hill county, and Coolidge, Limestone county, were victimized. Officers said that the burglars were experts, and entered more than a dozen business establishments and failed to open the inner compartments of only one safe tried.

Cash, checks, narcotics and jewelry valued at several thousand dollars were missed.

Coolidge Stores Robbed. Sheriff Sam Adkins of Groesbeck in a telephone conversation at noon Wednesday said that Ernest Hancock, Coolidge nightwatchman, was tied up by his attackers who then robbed eight or ten stores in the Limestone county town, including the city hall. A complete list of the victimized stores and the losses were not available at noon, Sheriff Adkins said. The wholesale burglaries occurred about 12:30 o'clock.

It was believed by Coolidge residents that the robbers were traveling in a pickup truck as such a vehicle was seen in the community shortly before the pillaging of the business district. Crowbars were used to enter the front doors and hammers were used to knock the knobs of the safes, the same procedure as employed later in the morning at Hubbard.

Attack Nightwatchman. Sheriff Adkins trailed the trio to Hubbard after answering the call to Coolidge. He found John Wright, Hubbard nightwatchman, beaten and locked in the turtleback of a car parked on the main street, about 4:30 o'clock, an hour and a half after he had been attacked. Sheriff Adkins said the entire law enforcement machinery of the state was seeking the trio.

J. C. Meeklin, editor of the Hubbard City News, stated in a conversation with the Daily Sun, that the locks were in "jimmied" with crowbars and that the safes were knocked with hammers, investigations revealed.

Nightwatchman Wright is reported to have been accosted near a safe at Hubbard by the three men and was asked where gasoline could be purchased. One is said to have placed a pistol in the officers' side. Reaching for his gun, it was reported, Wright was hit on the head and apparently knocked unconscious by two blows from a pistol. He later, according to the version given Wednesday morning, arose and attempted to make his way to where the alarm could be given, and was caught by the robbers and placed in the parked automobile of Otto Lusk, a Hubbard resident, where he was found and released an hour and a half later by the Limestone county sheriff.

Among the stores entered at Hubbard, according to Editor Meeklin, were English Brothers Grocery, safe broken, where $664.98 in currency and checks were taken; Jameson Drug Store, $200 in checks and cash, four watches and other jewelry, and all narcotics in the store; Schwartz Dry Goods Store,

ENSIGN—William Clarkson, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clarkson, 116 South Thirtieth street, Corsicana, was among the 1,000 midshipmen to be graduated May 27, from the U. S. Naval Reserve Midshipmen's School located on the campus of the University of Notre Dame with a commission as ensign. Ensign Clarkson is a graduate of Texas A. and M., 1941 class.

$200 in cash, with a number of checks left in the floor; J. Olin Kelt Drug Store, $40 from the cash register, and narcotics. The knob of the Kelt safe was knocked but entrance to the inner compartment was unsuccessful, the only safe that was not opened. The office of the Texas Power and Light Company was entered and the safe was opened without knocking the knob by the intruders and about $100 was missing.

Picture Show Robbed. The Chester Neece picture show office was burglarized but a complete check had not been ascertained at noon and the amount of loss was not available, Editor Meeklin said.

Nightwatchman Wright was giving medical attention following his rescue from the automobile and was confined to his bed, unable to see visitors, Wednesday at noon, but his condition is not believed serious. Sheriff Cap Curington of Navarro county and Police Chief Bruce Nutt of Corsicana were advised of the burglaries and attacks on the nightwatchmen early Wednesday morning via police radio reports. No burglaries were reported from any Navarro county communities last night or early Wednesday.

Married at Court House. C. J. Sitten of Blooming Grove, and Clara Knight were married at the court house Monday. The ceremony was performed by Judge A. E. Foster.

Urged Contribute Old Nylon Hose Government Use

Large collections of nylon hose have been made by various stores and organizations throughout Corsicana, for which the government is asking immediate use.

If these collections will be taken to S. J. Miles Furniture Store, Number 1, across from the post office, by Saturday noon, they will be shipped at once to New York, where they will be turned into essential supplies for the armed forces, Miles stated.

W. E. McKinney, Civilian Defense head, is urging united and speedy action on the part of every Corsicana citizen in shipping these hose to the government.

Mrs. E. P. Norwood, who has resided in Temple for the past two years, has returned to Corsicana to live, and is now living at one of her former homes on West Collin street.

Katie Lee Bonner, Robert Carl Lee Wed on Wednesday

A marriage of affectionate interest to a large circle of friends was solemnized on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Miss Katie Lee Bonner, daughter of Mrs. Effie Bonner, became the bride of Robert Carl (Bob) Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Lee, at the home of the bride's mother, with Rev. Edwin F. Bohm, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church officiating.

The marriage lines were read before an improvised altar fashioned of pedestals of flowers, and the ceremony was a simple and impressive single ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. John Bonner, Jr., of Goodfellow Field, San Angelo. She was attractive in a tailored model of white, with white hat and navy accessories. Her flowers were gardenias in a white arrangement, which topped the Bible of her late grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Shields. For the traditional "something old," she wore the gold bracelet of a great aunt, for "something new," she carried a hand-made handkerchief of another great aunt, for "something borrowed," she wore the gloves of an aunt, and her accessories were the "something blue" she wore a six-pence in her slipper.

The bride's only attendant was her aunt, Mrs. Luther Greer of Eureka, who wore a navy sheer with corsage of pink carnations. The bride's mother was stationed at the U. S. Naval Base in Dallas, and both were wearing official uniforms of the U. S. Navy.

The bride's mother wore a navy and white print with corsage of white carnations, and the bridegroom's mother wore a navy sheer with white carnations for accent. The bride's table for the reception, laid in lace, held the traditional satined wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, and was lighted with gleaming white tapers in crystal, with a centerpiece of gardenias highlighted with glossy green foliage.

Miss Rowland Jernigan presided at the antique crystal punch service, a treasured heirloom of the bride's family and Mrs. Gene Brown served the cake. Miss Joyce Franklin registered the guests, who were close relatives and friends of both families.

Educational Background. The bride was a 1943 graduate of Corsicana High School and was active in the following school organizations: the Personality Club, 1941; the Pep Squad, 1940-42; cheer leader, 1943; the Coronation, 1941-1942; Corsicana staff, 1943. She was also valued member of the Dramatic Club of Cook School.

The bridegroom was an honor student of the local 1942 graduation class, and was an employee of the State National Bank and Air Activities before his induction into the U. S. Navy in March, 1943. He is now an apprentice seaman, stationed at the U. S. Naval Base in Corpus Christi.

Immediately after the reception, the young couple left for Corpus Christi, where their home address will be Roosevelt Drive, 214 Third Block, and where Mrs. Lee will be engaged in secretarial work at the U. S. Naval Base.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harris and sons, Weldon and Charles Hayden, and Mr. and Mrs. Luther Greer of Eureka, and Corp. and Mrs. Clayton Kent of Midland.

"General" Smalling At Corsicana Field

"General" Earl Smalling, superintendent of buildings at Corsicana Field, Air Activities of Texas, is the subject of a feature article in the Flying Tiger official publication of the school, this week. A photograph of Smalling accompanied the article.

Smalling has been superintendent of the field since early in 1942, and prior to that time, was superintendent of buildings and grounds for Corsicana schools for six years.

The title was bestowed on Smalling several months ago by Corporal Manuel Cole, and he's been "General" Smalling ever since the day the corporal typed him out a name card to make it official.

"And he'll be 'General' to officers and cadets and civilian personnel alike as long as he's superintendent of buildings at Corsicana Field—which should be a long time," the article continued. Smalling is termed as a sort of foster-father to the flying cadets. The article outlined his daily routine and also spoke of his genial smiles and advice to the cadets.

Farm Labor Shortage Serious In County Navarro county is facing a drastic farm labor situation for the next 60 to 90 days, declared Robert G. Dillard, Corsicana Chamber of Commerce manager, Thursday.

Up to the present time recruiting and routing of labor has been handled by the United States Employment Service and the Farm Security administration. Beginning July 1 the government is handing back to the local people the labor problem, Dillard said. Governmental agencies are going out of labor supply as far as agriculture is concerned.

Navarro county has only two or three available sources for farm labor, which will make it necessary for high school boys and girls to do farm work for schools to have staggered schedules, and for many business houses to close certain days and hours in order that farmers may have help from city employees, he stated.

The county agent and members of agriculture committee of Chamber of Commerce will have a call meeting Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the court house to set up machinery which will assume this responsibility left up to the county by the federal government, Dillard announced.

Information From Rationing Board

The Office of Price Administration has added evaporated and condensed milk to the list of rationed foods under the order of effective Wednesday, June 2, consumers using their red stamps in war ration book two for buying canned milk.

The ration value is set at one point per pound. No additional points will be made available to consumers for canned milk purchases. A consumer may buy any number of small-size cans whose total weight is one pound or less for one point; however each can weighing more than 8 ounces—regardless of the number of cans bought—costs one point.

Persons whose doctors certify that they require extra amounts of canned milk may apply to their local ration boards for supplemental rations, stated Wilbur Wright, chairman, Thursday.

BIG CASH FARMING INCOME POURED INTO RIO GRANDE VALLEY

McALEN, June 3.—(P)—Revenue from farming operations in the richest season in its history has poured $31,839,000 in cash income into the Rio Grande Valley during the first four months of 1945, an April income set a new all-time record of $9,381,000 for a single month.

The figures were made public in data compiled by the bureau of business research at the University of Texas.

The Valley ranks as the second highest district in the state in farm income for 1943 through April, the report showed. Only the Amarillo district of the Panhandle, with total income of $37,594,000, mostly from livestock sales, topped the Valley.

HEALTH, BEAUTY AND POISE

HOW TO IMPROVE YOUR PERSONALITY
By VERONICA DENGEL

PHYSICAL TROUBLES TODAY.

S. D. writes: My doctor tells me that I have stones in my kidney. Is there any special diet you would suggest—and do you think they can ever be dissolved, or must I have an operation?

The operation decision is up to you and your doctor. Naturally, I cannot know the whole story from your letter. But I do know of many cases that have recovered completely without operation.

Such individuals have followed a very careful routine of diet and internal cleansing—and have stuck to that routine. You might add lots of Vitamin A foods to your diet—and cut down on the acid-forming foods. Avoid cranberries, rhubarb and watercress, however, because these are irritants to kidney disturbances. Your Vitamin A foods are: Dairy products—egg yolks, milk, cream and butter. Fish oils. Dark green vegetables, especially, escarole, chard, kale, pursley, spinach, turnip tops, dandelion greens. Yellow vegetables, such as carrots, squash, sweet potatoes, pumpkin. Your diet to include some of these foods every day—and use very little starch and sugar—almonds the unrefined types when you do use them.

I. L. writes: I am allergic to several foods—is there any way such allergies can be overcome?

Frankly, I don't believe in allergies very much. They are a fancy name for conditions which would respond very nicely to a thorough internal cleansing. Always where there are allergies a need of calcium is indicated. Calcium is such an important element, I wish there were a law compelling everyone to take a certain amount of it every day. It is best derived from certain foods—although this mineral, as well as some of the vitamins, can be taken in concentrated form. Vitamin A is also necessary in large quantities for those who have "allergies." In answer to the first question, you will find a list of such foods. And your best calcium foods are: Milk, spinach, raw eggs, cabbage, radishes, oranges, lemons, endive, Swiss cheese, cottage cheese, coconuts. Do us more of these foods—stay on an alkaline-forming diet for a week or two—keep your eliminators up to date—and gradually those allergies will disappear. Send for my House Cleaning Diet. If you wish—just a three-cent stamped, self-addressed, envelope is needed.

used altogether about 100,000 troops in the battle and that they had suffered about 30,000 casualties.

A communique from the headquarters of Lieut. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell announced that 10 counter-offensive blows were struck by the 14th U. S. Air Force May 30 and 31 in support of the Chinese army in the Lake Tungting area.

P-24 Liberator bombers were credited with destruction of 20 Japanese fighter planes and probable destruction of five others during bombardment of Ichang air fields and Chinese fighter pilots led by Lieut. Col. John Allison of Gainesville, Ala., destroyed three Zeros and probably wrecked three others.

At least five enemy planes were destroyed on the ground. Japanese gunboats were set afire, four river boats were sunk or burned and the locomotives of four trains were knocked out. In addition, numerous casualties were inflicted on Japanese troops.

Two American planes were lost and several others were damaged.

Recapture of Changyang would represent an advance of about 20 miles for the Chinese troops since they regained Yuyangkwan last Saturday.

Menaces Jap Lines.

The occupation of Chikiang, the spokesman said, menaced Japanese communications with Ichang Japanese positions south of the Yangtze now form an arc extending from a point less than 15 miles west of Ichang to Lihshien in Hunan province.

The Chinese announced yesterday that they had regained three towns above Lihshien and said the retreating Japanese in this area had been surrounded and many had been wiped out.

The military spokesman said that an important factor in the Chinese successes was the "collaboration of the Chinese and American air forces, which have accomplished very much."

The Chinese forces also received considerable help from Puppet Chinese troops which the Japanese tried to employ, but from which full information was obtained concerning the enemy's strength, the spokesman asserted.

1942 or 1943 taxes will be abated for others, who will be required to pay the remaining 25 per cent in two annual installments.

2. A 20 per cent withholding levy on wages and salaries, above basic exemptions, will go into effect July 1, for current collection of income and victory taxes.

3. Taxpayers with other sources of income will estimate their 1943 liability and pay quarterly on it, beginning Sept. 15.

4. The estimated quarterly installments paid this year on 1943 taxes will be credited to 1944 taxes.

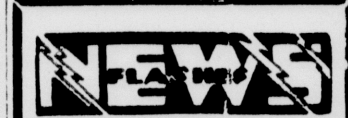

"It will make tax collections at the source immediately possible—a device, whether we like it or not, which is indispensable to the war effort," Sen. Vandenberg (R-Mich.), declared. "It will substantially increase the federal tax revenue for 1943, 1944 and 1945. It probably stabilized individual income taxes for the next two years."

Vandenberg's reference to "stabilizing" income taxes found support among his colleagues, many of whom said privately it would be impossible to boost individual rates in the search congress is scheduled to being later in the year for $16,000,000,000 in new revenue.

New Salvation Army Officers Due Take Up Work on Sunday

Capt. and Mrs. Eugene Hoyt Smith of Waco are expected in Corsicana Sunday to assume their duties at the local Salvation Army post. Capt. Smith succeeds Capt. Herschel Murphy who has been transferred to Pampa.

Capt. Smith is a graduate of the Waco High school, attended Baylor University and he and his wife have just completed their course at the Salvation Army college in Atlanta, Ga. He is a brother of Mrs. Claud Slaughter of this city.

We, the People

In spite of the mighty massing of military and naval strength, it is the little man who does the real, actual work and, in truth, makes the headlines. asserted that the Germans were engaged in heavy defensive fighting in their Kuban bridgehead and that "thrusts and attempts at piercing the German lines, made by Soviet infantry and tanks, collapsed in concentrated fire x x x or else were smashed before the troops were deployed for attack."

(Nazis) attacks on railway installations near Kursk were extremely heavy, and German shock troops blew up numerous Russian dugout positions, the Germans said. They also asserted 83 Russian planes were shot down yesterday.

The communique was recorded by the Associated Press from a Berlin broadcast.

(The Russian communique announced three towns were recaptured by the Russians in fighting around Sevsk, 80 miles northwest of Kursk.)

FINNISH REPORT

The Finnish communique, broadcast by the Berlin radio and recorded by the Associated Press, said three bombers and three fighters were shot down out of a Russian formation of 14 bombers and a like number of fighter planes in a clash east of Suvasaari yesterday.

Kursk was recaptured by the Russians in their winter offensive last Feb. 8, along with Belgorod, 30 miles south. Its capture preceded the winning of Kharkov, 120 miles south. When the Germans surged back into the Donets Valley in mid-March, they were unable to regain Kursk, although they fanned down the curve of the Donets river to the southeast.

The Russians, still held at Smolensk, battered that railway junction from the air Tuesday night and also hit rail stations and ammunition dumps at Karachev and Krasny Bor.

Elsewhere on the aerial front, 25 German planes were shot down in attempted raids on Leningrad, while the Pravda correspondent reported "thousands of flights take place daily" in the Kuban Valley area.

POPE URGES LAWS OF HUMANITY RULE PRESENT AIR WAR

(By The Associated Press.)

The Rome radio quoted Pope Pius XII in an address to the college of Cardinals today as exhorting the belligerents to respect the laws of humanity in the air war.

The broadcast was recorded by the Associated Press.

"We, who since the beginning of the conflict have done all that was in our power to induce the belligerents to respect the laws of humanity in the aerial war, now believe it to be our duty to exhort them once more to observe these laws," the radio quoted him as saying.

Many Teachers Go Into Defense Jobs

Corsicana school teachers are fast switching their talents from text books to defense jobs as school doors close and summer months approach.

W. H. Norwood, superintendent of schools, has already granted releases from teaching for the next three months to the following teachers: Mrs. Gertrude Russell, Miss Inez Stanley, Miss Dorothy Sweetman, Miss Hazel Halsey, Miss Rowena Scott, Miss Martha Lockhart, and Miss Jewell Cantrell, in order that they may secure work in war industries during their vacation.

Teachers can be given qualified releases for the summer months, but they must return to their job of teaching next fall, according to War Manpower Commission.

terday, along with sweeps over San Antonio Island off Sardinia and over the Aegean Sea.

Allied naval forces had previously shelled the island Sunday and Tuesday.

Pantelleria lies 45 miles east of Cap Bon Tunia, and is strategically important as a potential stepping-stone for an invasion of Sicily or the Italian mainland.

Invasion Discussed.

A Berlin broadcast, discussing two articles in the German army organ, Die Wehrmacht, stressed the possibility of allied thrusts into Europe from several directions, and declared:

"An Anglo-American expeditionary force might perhaps succeed in crossing the Mediterranean and landing somewhere in southern Europe, but it would not have the slightest chance in battle against the continental armies with their millions of well-trained and well-equipped troops."

Coupled with this boast of axis invincibility, the broadcast conceded that the allies "might perhaps succeed in obtaining a foothold at some points on the Norwegian coast for some time."

"It cannot be denied, of course, that the Anglo-American occupation of Tunisia created a new situation in the Mediterranean," the broadcast added. "It would be foolish to ignore the fact that the Anglo-Americans now are in a position to use the bases in Tunisia for offensive operations against Europe."

Berlin previously had named June 22 as "der tag" for the allies' grand assault on Europe.

Other war headlines:

Russia—Hitler turns on sudden burst of air power, 500 nazis planes attack Soviet base at Kursk. Russians say 123 German aircraft shot down at Kursk, 37 in Caucasus, 25 at Leningrad; 2,000 nazis killed in two-day battle on northwest front.

China—Chinese armies storm within 12 miles of big Japanese base at Chang; Chungking spokesman says Japanese retreating on whole upper Yangtze river front, suffering 30,000 casualties out of 100,000 troops; Tokyo admits Japanese operations are "successfully concluded."

Southwest Pacific—U. S. Bombers drop 156 tons of explosive on Japanese bases in New Guinea in week-long offensive, six raids unchallenged by single Japanese plane.

Washington — Military experts, reviewing year's events since battle of Midway, see ultimate wreckage of Japanese war hopes.

London—Germans believed gunning for Churchill when shot down Lisbon-to-London air liner carrying Actor Leslie Howard.

In the Mediterranean, dispatches from allied headquarters said American warplanes swept over "Mussolini's rock" at Pantelleria Island almost at will yesterday, smashing buildings in the port area, and shot up bivouacked troops and radio installations in Southern Sardinia.

Both islands, along with Sicily, would be likely prime objectives in an allied invasion sweep across the Mediterranean from North Africa.

On the Russian front, Adolf Hitler turned a sudden and violent burst of air power against the Soviet base at Kursk, 300 miles south of Moscow, but the Russians declared they shot down at least 123 out of 500 German raiders for one of the biggest single day's bag in any theater of aerial warfare.

German Planes Downed.

In addition, the Soviet command declared that 371 German planes were shot down yesterday over the Caucasus and 25 at Leningrad.

Military analysts saw three possible explanations for the mass assault on Kursk, the biggest undertaken by the Germans for months:

1. An attempt to smash Soviet preparations for a summer offensive, perhaps synchronized with an allied invasion of Europe.

2. A "softening up" assault preceding a German offensive.

3. The beginning of a big-scale Nazi aerial campaign against Russia, now that the German air force has been virtually swept back from the Mediterranean.

On the land front, Soviet headquarters announced that the Red armies had killed 2,000 Germans in a two-day battle northwest of Moscow, while the Nazi command said German troops were engaged in heavy defensive fighting in the narrow Kuban bridgehead in the Caucasus.

adoption of the conference resolutions, declared it was a remarkable fact that, unless the stress of war, the participating delegations were able to discuss post-war problems.

"It shows complete confidence," he said, "in the outcome of the war. That confidence is well founded. We shall win this war."

Law declared, however, that "after we have won our victory there is still work to be done, work that we must do together."

Chairman Sums Up.

Conference Chairman Marvin Jones, summing up results of the parley, said the United Nations had discovered facts of "profound and lasting significance for the entire world—for each nation—and for every man, woman and child upon the earth."

"What we have found," he said is this:

"First—Compelling confirmation of a united purpose to make effective the pledge of the Atlantic Charter and of the mutual aid agreements for a peace that will afford an assurance that all men in all lands may live out their lives in freedom from fear and want."

"Second—Overwhelming evidence that we have in unity the strength to make our purpose effective in peace as we are making it effective in war."

"Third—A convincing and inspiring demonstration that we can work together in practice—in the hard, everyday effort that will step by step translate our hopes—and the hope of all mankind—into reality."

The conference, Jones said, represented more than 1,600,000,000 persons, or three quarters of the world's population. Other conferences will follow he added.

Another speaker, J. M. Troncoso, chairman of the delegation of the Dominican republic, said the conference had placed unity above national interest and policy.

Another speaker, Dr. C. P. Kuo, chairman of the Chinese delegation, declared that everything we had hoped to accomplish at this conference has been accomplished and under most happy conditions."

Tribute to conference Chairman Marvin Jones was paid by Joao Carlos Muniz, chairman of the Brazilian delegation, who said his leadership was largely responsible for the "success attained by the conference."

Krutikov praised the "atmosphere and confidence" in which the conference did its work and moved a resolution of gratitude to President Roosevelt for his initiative on conceiving it.
